ROOSEVELT THANKS G. O. P. FOR POSTERS

Says Harding Well Identified With "Wiggle and Wobble"

DECATUR, BL. Oct. 13-Franklin D. Roosevelt. Democratic vice-presidential nominee, in an address here, the Republican national committee for spreading breadcast through this section of the country large posters showing the pictures of the Repub-lican nominee with the inscription: "Let us have done with wiggle and wobble." expressed his "deep appreciation to

"No advertisement published by the national Democratic committee," he said, "could so exactly have expressed the main issue of this campaign. The Republican presidential nominee has inseparably attached the policy of 'wiggle and wobble' to him-

"Senator Harding's advisers ap-parently are theroughly alarmed." he continued. "His return to Marion yesterday is followed by two new 'Wiggles' and one 'wobble.' First, we have a new explanation of how he kind of a onlya board league. Seckind of a only board league. Sec-ond, he is attempting to apologize to the American Legion for his state-ment that he would bring our troops back from the Rhine by making a separate peace with Germany; and, finally, he seeks to explain his de-termined opposition in the senate to the confirmation of Justice Brandeis as a member of the supreme court."
